This Cookies Policy explains how The Hearing Centre uses cookies on our website. By using our website, you agree to our use of cookies in accordance with this policy.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

2. Why We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Ensure the proper functioning of the website
- Enable the use of embedded tools (such as Google Maps)
- Understand how visitors interact with the website (e.g. page views, navigation patterns)
- Improve the performance and user experience of the site

3. Types of Cookies We Use

Type	Purpose
Strictly Necessary Cookies	Essential for website functionality, such as submitting a contact form
Functionality Cookies	Allow features like Google Maps to display our clinic location
Performance Cookies	May be used to collect anonymous analytics data to improve our website

4. Managing Cookies

You can manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. Please note that disabling cookies may impact the functionality of some parts of our website.

For more information about managing cookies, visit:

- <https://www.allaboutcookies.org/>
- <https://www.youronlinechoices.com/>

5. Third-Party Cookies

Some features on our website, like Google Maps, may place cookies on your device through third-party services. We do not control these cookies.

We recommend reviewing the privacy and cookies policies of third-party services such as:

- Google Maps Cookies Policy

6. Changes to This Policy

We may update this policy from time to time to reflect changes in technology or legal requirements. The most recent version will always be posted on our website.
